

Sinum perspectivum (Say, 1831)
White Baby Ear

Class Gastropoda
Family Naticidae

Classification according to Turgeon et al. (1998)
References used: Description from Abbott (1974)

Diagnostic characters: 1 to 2 inches in maximum diameter; very flat with large white aperture and strongly curved columella; numerous fine spiral lines on top of whorls; dull-white with a light-brown, thin periostracum; animal fully envelopes the shell.

Habitat: Common; found in shallow sandy areas.

Range: Cape Maryland to Florida to Texas and West Indies; Bermuda; Brazil.

