

Eugonatonotus crassus (A. Milne Edwards, 1881)

Order Decapoda
Suborder Pleocyemata
Family Eugonatonotidae

References used: Pequegnat and Chace (1970), Abele and Kim (1986)

Diagnostic characters: Third abdominal somite with high, humped middorsal ridge; rostrum laterally compressed, coarsely dentate, and upturned; ends of fingers of first two pairs of pereiopods dark colored.

Habitat: 183 to 914 m.

Range: Georgia to the Bahamas, Guianas, and Gulf of Mexico, Yucatan, and Honduras; Borneo through the Phillipines and Japan.

